PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the week of May 5-11, 1996, has been designated as "Disabilities Awareness Week" to celebrate and recognize people with disabilities by the Governor of the State of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, disability is a natural part of the human experience and in no way diminishes the right of individuals with disabilities to live independently, enjoy self-determination, make choices, contribute to society, and experience full inclusion in the economic, political, social, cultural and educational mainstream of American society; and

WHEREAS, family members, friends and members of the community can play a central role in enhancing the lives of people with disabilities especially when the family and community are provided with necessary support services; and public and private employers are aware of the capabilities of people with disabilities to be engaged in competitive work inclusive settings; and

WHEREAS, the goals of this town and state properly include individuals with disabilities the opportunities and support to make informed choices and decisions; live in homes and communities where such individuals can exercise their full rights and responsibilities as citizens; pursue meaningful and productive lives; contribute to their family; community, state and nation; have interdependent friendships and relationships with others; and achieve full inclusion in society.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Max Andrews, Mayor of the Town of Sawmills, do hereby proclaim the week of May 5-11, 1996, as in the Town of Sawmills, and call upon citizens to observe the week with appropriate programs and activities; furthermore, I encourage the citizens of the Town of Sawmills to seek counsel and input from any person or group with knowledge and expertise in matters concerning disabilities.
